Description

House:

This fully furnished apartment is located on the 3rd floor of a six-story, well-kept apartment building. There is also an elevator.

Apartment:

There's an open fitted kitchen with high quality appliances in the apartment: washing machine, induction stove, dishwasher, microwave, coffee maker, kettle, combination fridge and freezer, cookware, crockery, cutlery and toaster. There's a cozy boxspring bed in the bedroom.

Area:

Wilmersdorf is a prime and sought-after residential area in western Berlin. This district of the city, which is full of greenery, offers excellent infrastructure, quiet living and international flair. The fully furnished two-room apartment is located on a side street off of Berliner Straße and Bundesallee. The transport connections are optimal: the apartment is 300 meters away from the Berliner Straße underground station with connections to the U7 and U9 underground lines and the 104, N7, N9 and N42 bus lines. In addition, an on-ramp to the A100 city motorway is also located in the immediate vicinity. An array of shops to satisfy daily needs, from bakery to hairdresser, are located in the neighborhood along with supermarkets and branches of banks, savings banks and credit unions. There is even a petrol station and a car repair shop just around the corner. Sports enthusiasts will be pleased to find a McFIT gym right across the street as well as Schoelerpark, which features sports fields for football, volleyball and basketball, within walking distance. In addition to Schoelerpark, Volkspark Schöneberg-Wilmersdorf and Preußenpark with Germany's largest Asian street food market are a 15-minute walk away.
